When the concept of the Andy Griffith Show was created by Sheldon Leonard and Make Room for Daddy star Danny Thomas (Marlo's dad), Griffith agreed to star in the program and landed himself a half-ownership. Griffith had not been pursuing TV up to that point, but focusing on film roles in the wake of A Face in the Crowd, No Time For Sergeants and the best-forgotten Onionhead.

Of the show's producers, Andy brought the only authentic Southern presence. The others were big city folks.
