This is just a fun experiment. Take the choose 1 image out of 9 test and see what your image tells about you. Then read the other descriptions and decide if the test was the closest. Next think of a friend and you pick the design that corresponds to the description you think best describes him or her. Then let them take the test and see if you came up with the same results they did.

It takes substantially longer to take this survey, but the results are far more in-depth.
