How'd That Happen

From Cheryl Hebert, Lifestyles Director, Allegro pg 6

A Lawyer and the Pope died at the same time, both went to heaven. They were met at the Pearly Gate by St. Peter who conducted them to their rooms.

First they stopped at The Pope's room. It was Spartan with bare floor, army cot for a bed, and a single bulb for light.

Next St. Peter directed the lawyer to come with him. They arrived at the Lawyer's room; It was huge with wall to wall carpeting, king sized water bed, indirect lighting, color TV, stereo, Jacuzzi and fully stocked bar.

The Lawyer said, "There must be a mistake. This must be the Pope's room!"

St. Peter said, "There's no mistake. This is your room. You see we have a lot of Pope's, but you're our very first Lawyer!"

Tourism Questions

Not From Joe Kaiser...surprisingly!

These questions were posted on an Australian Tourism Website and the answers are the actual responses by the website officials, who obviously have a good sense of humor.

(not to mention a low tolerance threshold for cretins...)

Q: Will I be able to see kangaroos in the street? (USA)

A: Depends on how much you've been drinking.

Q: Are there supermarkets in Sydney and is milk available all year round? (Germany)

A: No, we are a peaceful civilization of vegan hunter/gatherers and milk is illegal.

Q: Can I wear high heels in Australia? (UK)

A: You are a British politician, right?

Q: Please send a list of all doctors in Australia who can dispense rattlesnake serum. (USA)

A: Rattlesnakes live in A-me-ri-ca which is where you come from. All Australian snakes are perfectly harmless, can be safely handled and make good pets.

Q: I have a question about a famous animal in Australia, but I forget its name. It's a kind of bear and lives in trees. (USA)

A: It's called a Drop Bear. They are so called because they drop out of Gum trees and eat the brains of anyone walking underneath them. You can scare them off by spraying yourself with dog urine before you go out walking.

Q: I have developed a new product that is the fountain of youth. Can you tell me where I can sell it in Australia? (USA)

A: That would be anywhere significant numbers of Americans gather.

Q: Will I be able to speak English, most places I go? (USA)

A: Yes, but you'll have to learn it first.

Q: Will I be able to meet an Aborigine? (USA)

A: I certainly hope so, you can't swing a dead cat in Australia without hitting one of the buggars.

Quit While Your Behind

From Joe Kaiser

When Mahatma Gandhi was studying law at the University College, London, a white professor, whose last name was Peters, disliked him intensely.

One day, Mr. Peters was having lunch at the dining room when Gandhi came along with his tray and sat next to the professor.

The professor said, "Mr. Gandhi, you do not understand, "a pig and a bird do not sit together to eat."

Gandhi looked at him as a parent would a rude child & calmly replied, "You do not have to worry professor, I'll fly away," and he went and sat at another table.

Mr. Peters, reddened with rage, decided to take revenge.

The next day in Class he posed the following question: "Mr. Gandhi, if you were walking down the street & found a package, and within was a bag of wisdom and another bag with money, which one would you take?"

Without hesitating, Gandhi responded, "The one with the money, of course."

Mr. Peters, smiling sarcastically said, "I, in your place, would have taken the wisdom."

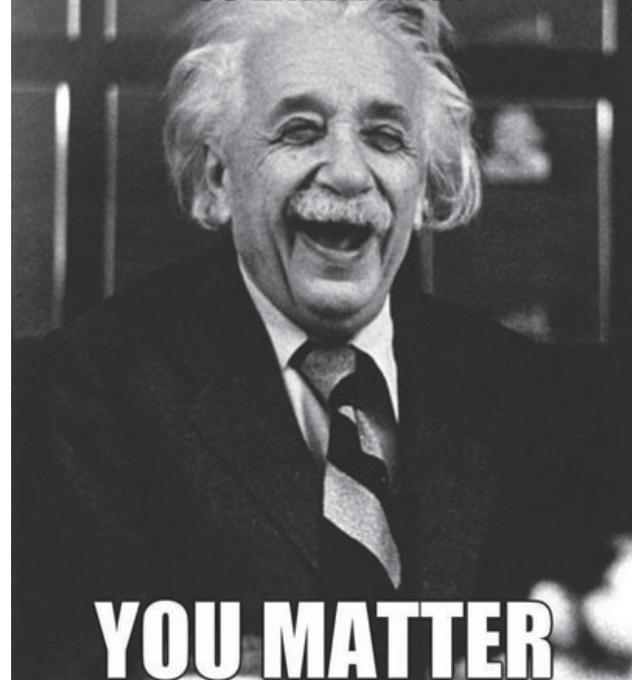

Gandhi shrugged & responded, "One takes what one does not have."

Mr. Peters, by this time was fit to be tied. So great was his anger that he wrote on Gandhi's next exam sheet the word "IDIOT" and gave it to Gandhi.

Gandhi took the exam sheet & sat down at his desk trying very hard to remain calm while he contemplated his next move.

A few minutes later, Gandhi got up, went to the professor and told him in a dignified polite tone, "Mr. Peters, you signed the sheet, but you failed to give me a grade."

US Space Program

This is one example of why we can't fly ourselves to the international space station anymore.

When NASA first planned to send up astronauts, they quickly discovered that ball-point pens would not work in zero gravity. To combat the problem, NASA scientists spent a decade and $1.2 billion to develop a pen that writes in zero gravity, upside down, underwater, on almost any surface including glass, and at temperatures ranging from below freezing to +100 C.

Confronted with the same problem, the Russians use a pencil.

I.T. Departments Just Love...

From The Head Geek at Compusat Computer Everything, pg 3

1. When the photocopier doesn't work, call computer support. There's electronics in it.
2. Don't write anything down.... Ever! We can play back the error messages from here.
3. When an I.T. person says he's coming right over, go for coffee. That way you won't be there when we need your password. It's nothing for us to remember 700 screen saver passwords.
4. When you call the help desk, state what you want, not what's keeping you from getting it. We don't need to know that you can't get into your mail because your computer won't power on at all.

5. When I. T. support sends you an E-Mail with high importance, delete it at once. We're just testing.
6. When the printer still won't print after 20 tries, send the job to all 68 printers in the company. One of them is bound to work.
7. When you call us to have your computer moved, be sure to leave it buried under half a ton of postcards, baby pictures, stuffed animals, dried flowers, bowling trophies and children's art. We don't have a life, and we find it deeply moving to catch a fleeting glimpse of yours.

The Average Working Joe

From Norm Millichamp

Like most folks in this country, I have a job. (Well at this point only about 54%, and that includes retirees!) I work, they pay me. I pay my taxes and the government distributes my taxes as it sees fit.

In order to get that paycheck in my case, I am required to pass a random urine test (with which I have no problem). What I do have a problem with is the distribution of my taxes to people who don't have to pass a urine test.

So, here is my Question: Shouldn't one have to pass a urine test to get an 'Entitlement' check, because I have to pass one to earn it for them? And ladies and

Tupperware For Men.

The Average Working Joe

gentlemen of the congress and the press, Social Security is NOT an entitlement, it's earned income.

Please understand, I have no problem with helping people get back on their feet. I do, on the other hand, have a problem with helping someone sitting on their butt, doing nothing or selling drugs all day, while I work. . .

Can you imagine how much money each state would save if people had to pass a urine test to get a public assistance check?

I guess we could title that program, 'Urine or You're Out'.

Hope you all will pass it along. Some things have to change in this country... and soon!

Manisms vs. Womanisms

A man will pay $2 for a $1 item that he needs. A woman will pay $1 for a $2 item that she doesn't need.

married man should forget his mistakes there's no use in two people remembering the same thing forever.

A woman worries about the future until she gets a husband. A man never worries about the future until he gets a wife.

Men wake up as good-looking as they went to bed. Women somehow deteriorate during the night.

A successful man is one who makes more money than his wife can spend. A successful woman is one who can find such a man.

A woman marries a man expecting him to change and he doesn't. A man marries a woman expecting that she won't change, and she does.

To be happy with a man, you must understand him a lot and love him a little. To be happy with a woman, you must love her a lot and try not to understand her at all.

A woman has the last word in any argument. Anything a man says after that, is the beginning of another argument.

Married men live longer than single men, but married men are more willing to die. A

There are two times when a man doesn't understand woman, before marriage and after marriage.

Religion To A Four Year Old

There's an invisible man... living in the sky, who watches everything you do every minute of every day. And the invisible man has a list of ten specific things he doesn't want you to do. And if you do any of these things, he will send you to a special place, of burning and fire and smoke and torture and anguish for you to live forever, and suffer and burn and scream until the end of time. But he loves you. He loves you and he needs your money.

Not Exactly the Farmer's Almanac

From Dale Pritchard

It was already late fall and the Indians on a remote reservation in South Dakota asked their new chief if the coming winter was going to be mild or cold.

Since he was a chief in modern society he had never been taught the ancient secrets of reading the 'signs'. When he looked at the sky, the trees, or the animals, he had no clue what their characteristics meant. Nevertheless, to be safe, he told his tribe that the winter was indeed going to be cold and that members of the village should collect firewood to be prepared.

But being a practical leader, after several days he got an idea. He went to the phone booth five miles from the village and called the National Weather Service and asked if the coming winter was going to be a cold one.

"It looks like this winter is going to be quit cold," the meteorologist responded.

The Chief went back to his people and told them that they should collect even more firewood in order to be prepared.

A week later, on his normal trip in to get supplies, he called the weather service again. He asked, "Does it still look like it is going to be a cold winter?"

"Yes," the man at the National Weather Service said. "Further indications call for a very cold winter."

The Chief went back and told his people to collect every scrap of firewood they could find.

Another week later, the Chief called the weather service again. He asked the meteorologist if he was absolutely sure that the winter was going to be very cold.

The meteorologist replied, "Definitely, it's looking more and more like it is going to be the coldest winter we've ever seen."

"How can you be so sure?", the Chief asked.

The meteorologist replied, "Because the Indians are collecting firewood like crazy!"

It's What Kids Do (2)

I love the outdoors, and because of my passion for hunting and fishing my family eats a considerable amount of wild game. So much, in fact, that one evening as I set a platter of broiled venison steaks on the dinner table, my ten year old daughter looked up and said, "Boy it sure would be nice if pepperoni pizzas lived in the woods."

A mother was showing her young son how to zip up his coat. "The secret," she said,

"is to get the left part of the zipper to fit in the other side before you try to zip it up." the boy looked at her quizzically and said, "Why does it have to be a secret?"

When my daughter was three, we watched Snow White And The Seven Dwarfs for the first time. The wicked queen appeared, disguised as an old lady selling apples, and my daughter was spellbound. Then Snow White took a bite of the poisoned apple and fell to the ground unconscious.

As the apple rolled away, my daughter spoke up. "See, Mom, she doesn't like the skin either."

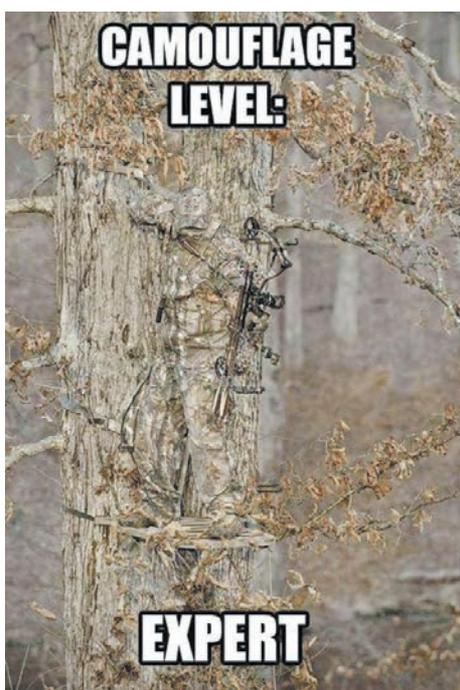

A little boy got lost at the YMCA and found himself in the woman's locker room. When he was spotted, the room burst into shrieks, with the ladies grabbing towels and running for cover. The little boy watched in amazement and then asked, "What's the matter...haven't you ever seen a little boy before?"

Pharmaceutical Commercials

From Bellann and Fred Fitts

I don't understand why prescription medicine is allowed to advertise on TV or more importantly why anyone would think of trying one of the medicines after listening to the laundry list of warnings and side effects in the extra long commercials.

"Do you sometimes feel stressed? Do you have feelings of inadequacy? Do you suffer from shyness? Do you sometimes wish you were more assertive?"

"In no time you will return to the old you from your college days. When you had a clear definition of what your priorities were."

"Warnings:
The consumption of Cabaret™ Sauvignon may make you think you are whispering when you are not.

The consumption of Cabaret™ Sauvignon may cause you to think you can sing.

The consumption of Cabaret™ Sauvignon may create the illusion that you are tougher, smarter, faster and better looking than most people.

"If you answered yes to any of these questions, ask your doctor or pharmacist about Cabaret™ Sauvignon."

"Cabaret™ Sauvignon is the safe, natural way to feel better and more confident. It can help ease you out of your shyness and let you tell the world that you're ready and willing to do just about anything."

"You will notice the benefits of Cabaret™ Sauvignon almost immediately and, with a regimen of regular doses, you'll overcome obstacles that prevent you from living the life you want."

"Shyness and awkwardness will be a thing of the past. You will discover talents you never knew you had."

"Cabaret™ Sauvignon may not be right for everyone. Women who are pregnant or nursing should not use it but women who wouldn't mind nursing or becoming pregnant are encouraged to try it."

The consumption of Cabaret™ Sauvignon may cause you to tell your friends over and over again that you love them."

(Then this scrolling list appears on the screen as the narrator reads the entries.)

"The principle ingredient is CABERNET. It's side effects may include: Dizziness, nausea, vomiting, loss of motor control, loss of clothing, incarceration, loss of money, delusions of grandeur, table dancing, headache, dehydration, dry mouth, and a desire to sing Karaoke and play all-night Strip Poker, Truth Or Dare, and Naked Twister."

(Then the commercial fades out with a short clip of this music with the logo filling the screen)

LIFE IS A 'CABARET', OLD CHUM! COME TO THE CABERNET.

The Truth Will Cost Ya

Taking his seat in his chambers, the judge faced the opposing lawyers. "So," he said, "It appears that in the last few days both of you have sent envelopes with tidy sums of cash enclosed here to my chambers."

Both lawyers squirmed uncomfortably.

"You, Mr. Leon, sent $15,000. And you, Mr. Campos, gave me $10,000." I must say in my career on the bench I have never been presented with a dilemma like this.

"I took me a few moments to decide in order that justice is applied equally, there is only one reasonable thing to do."

The judge reached into his pocket, pulled out an envelope and handed it to Leon ...

"Now then, I'm returning $5,000 to you sir, and we're going to decide this case solely on its merits."

Touche'

From Bob Peden

After being away on business, Tim thought it would be nice to bring his wife a little gift. He went into a very nice looking boutique in the airport mall area.

"I've been out of town for a week and would like to get my wife a little something to show her I was thinking of her while away. How about some perfume?" he asked the cosmetics clerk.

She showed him a bottle costing $50.00.

"That's a bit much, do you have anything less expensive?", he said.

She returned with a smaller bottle for $30.00.

In a kind of complaining tone he said, "That's still more than I was planning on spending."

Growing annoyed, the clerk brought out a tiny $15.00 bottle.

Cutting to the chase, Tim just came out and said, "What I mean is I'd like to see something really cheap."

She reached under the counter and handed him a mirror.

Shut Up And Drive

This past summer, former President Bill Clinton and Hillary were vacationing in their home state of Arkansas. After a long road trip, they stopped at a service station to fill up their car with gas.

As it turns out, the owner of the gas station was Hillary's old high school boyfriend. They exchanged hello's and brief chit-chat before the former White House couple went on their way.

As they were making their way back home, Bill put his arm around Hillary and said, "Losing the election isn't as bad as it seems now...does it.... if you had stayed with him, you would now be the wife of a service station owner."

She smirked and replied, "No Bill, if I had stayed with him... he would have been the 42nd President of the United States!"

FLORIDA VETERANS
 — F O U N D A T I O N —
 "Transition for Success"
 www.FloridaVeteransFoundation.org

In 2008 the Florida Legislature established the Florida Veterans Foundation (FVF) as a nonprofit Direct Support Organization to the Florida Department of Veterans' Affairs (FDVA).

Veterans bring in over $17 billion annually to Florida. On a shoestring budget, FVF raises hundreds of thousands of dollars with only 5% administrative overhead. Events that the public attends generate funds all year long throughout the state. (see website)

FVF connects missions of Florida nonprofit organizations to serve the Veteran population in transportation, mental health, PTSD therapy, education, employment, health, benefits guides, and Veterans Outreach for ease of resources during crisis.

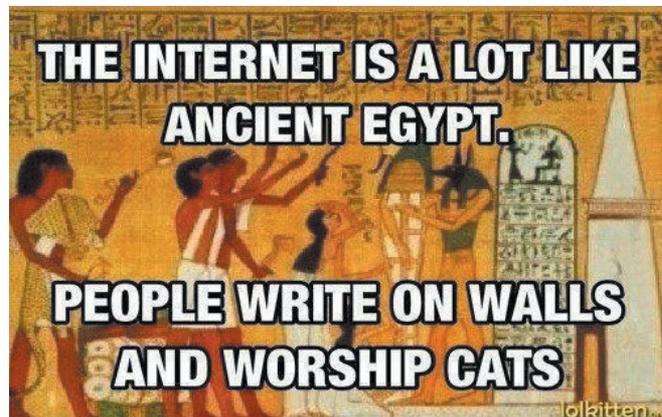

With staff and volunteers in 8 regions, FVF has taken charge of representing over 4.5 million FL Veterans and their families through Congressionally Mandated Florida Veterans Service Organizations (VSO's). We created a unified team to carry a top-three, prioritized list of initiatives to the legislative menu for the 2018 session. This dynamic with support of County Veteran Service Officers will bring education resources, and relief to meet the needs for Veteran's wellbeing and success.

Just one of FVF's goals is to eliminate homelessness. FVF has, in one year distributed over $363,000 to over 500 veterans and their families for housing and utilities. Additional resources were awarded during natural disasters such as hurricanes Hermine & Irma.

For a full 1 page list of FVF goals and services go to www.youcanwin.com and enter FVF in the key word box (top right of home page). Donate directly visiting FVF's website.

Everyday Irony (2)

From Fastlane Auto and Trailer Sales pg 2

Why does "fat chance" and "slim chance" mean the same thing?

Why are a "wise man" and a "wise guy" opposites?

Why do you press harder on the buttons of a remote control when you know the batteries are dead?

Why is "phonics" not spelled the way it sounds?

If work is so terrific, why do they have to pay you to do it?

If all the world is a stage, where is the audience sitting?

If a word is misspelled in the dictionary, how would we ever know?

Why do we put suits in garment bags and garments in a suitcase?

How come abbreviated is such a long word?

Christmas - What other time of the year do you sit in front of a dead tree and eat candy out of your socks?

Doesn't "expecting the unexpected" make the unexpected expected?
